Re: Potential Terrorist Threat

Please be advised that we have received notice from the Federal Bureau of Investigation of a potential terrorist threat. Potential terrorists may be attempting to locate and use a rental truck with a destination of Capitol City. Locate all trucks immediately and report the location of all trucks within 30 miles of Capitol City to the Haul n' Ride Security Team. In addition, until further notice, all customers must provide additional contact information as defined in the Customer Reference Policy.

If you have any questions, contact your team security director.
